DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT,
WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
ADOLPH E. EVANS.

FOR GOVERNOR,
J. C. W. BRIDGEMAN.

FOR CONGRESS,
HON. GEO. G. GILBERT.

ANNOUNCEMENT

We are authorized to announce OWEN J. YOUNG, a candidate for superintendent of public schools, subject to the action of the democratic party.

The amiable and excellent editor of the Journal, Harry McCarly, is Vice President of the Kentucky Press Association.

To consummate organization, and with it unity of purpose and action, is the great desideratum that all democrats should labor to attain.

The editor of the esteemed Valley View again prints a long article on the "Sorrows of a Millionaire," which shows that we have distinguished company in our troubles.

WHAT'S the matter with Lowry for Congress on the Republican ticket? All the other Civil Liberties seems to have declined to meet Gilbert. Lowry would run like a mule.

NORMAN, President McKelvey, said or written during his administration needs to be blotted out. Panta-kroth.

No, just place his words and his deeds in parallel columns and democrats will let McKelvey blot out his own record.

To win in November we must be alert. In organization there is union. Union is strength, and through strength comes victory. Through organization alone can we attain that union and harmony that makes success possible in politics. Without organization there is weakness, confusion, perhaps discord and strife, and possibly defeat. Without organization a major victory even may be defeated.

DEMOCRATS of Madison. Be up and doing. Organize clubs in every precinct. Call for speakers.

Victory is not to be achieved without a struggle against a cunning, powerful and unscrupulous adversary in league with corporate wealth, trusts and imperialism, banded together in an unholy alliance, to place under contribution the industries of the country and under the yoke of American freemen.

Mighty are the forces against us; unlimited their means, and flushed now are they with their national success in '96; but this is no reason for dismay; American manhood is stronger than the cause of liberty.

DEATHS

SHANKS, Richard, died of consumption yesterday at the residence of his sister, Miss Ida Shanks, on Tates Creek avenue. Deceased was a good hearted boy, and working and was in the best of health. About a year ago he fell from an omnibus and never recovered from the injury. Buried today.

WOODS, Mr. Clarence E. Wood was summoned to Chicago last week by the death of his brother, John David Wood, unmarried, aged 41, who died of consumption. Buried at Lebanon, Ky. Deceased was the fifth son of Major Thomas Cleland Wood, deceased, a Mexican soldier. Capt. Phil Thompson's Harrodsburg company. Major Wood was a descendant of Michael Wood, Sr., son of John Wood and Elizabeth Worman; the former was born in Ireland in 1841, first settled in Pennsylvania, then in Kentucky, county, Va. Michael Wood, Jr., and James Harvey Wood were his descendants. Some of them settled in Madison county, Ky., and among their descendants are the Capertons and Goodloes.

No receipt made has sufficient strength to resist bursting power of frozen water.

RELIGIOUS.
The Union services for the summer were closed with the sermon by Rev. J. K. Smith at the Methodist church last Sunday night. Services at all churches hereafter on Sunday nights except the Christian and First Presbyterian churches which will hold their services on the first of August.

A very happy meeting drew to a close last Sunday night, the Christian church, where a meeting was conducted by Rev. J. A. Abbott of this place, and J. K. Smith, of Richmond, Presbyterians. The people were greatly benefited by the eloquent address of these two clergies and hope to reach the plains of hope to each teaching—Estill News.
